ALLEN GO JOINS MYSTIC CAPITAL'S INVESTMENT BANKING TEAM

New York (September 5, 2006) - On the heels of its fifth anniversary, Mystic Capital Advisors Group, LLC announces the newest member of its investment banking team: Allen Go, a senior associate.

"As the volume of Mystic Capital's transactional activities continues to increase, we are thrilled to add a talented transaction advisor," says Mystic Capital Managing Director Kevin Donoghue. "Allen Go is a welcome addition to our fast-growing mergers and acquisitions practice. We look forward to leveraging his solid industry experience and financial consulting expertise for the benefit of our company and our clients."

Go is relocating from Philadelphia to become a part of Mystic Capital's New York City office. He will primarily focus on North American-based insurance transactions.

"I am excited to join this highly regarded and well-respected advisor to the micro-cap insurance space," says Go, a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) and member of the Philadelphia Society of CFAs. "I'm impressed with Mystic Capital's professionalism and dedication to client service and look forward to assisting with the strategic objectives of our clients."

Indeed, the company has a proven track record in achieving clients' goals. According to SNL Financial, Mystic Capital was the leading advisor of completed Mergers & Acquisitions in the Broker and Agency Insurance Deals in the first half of 2006. The firm's services have been well sought-out by numerous insurance firms, including insurance companies, managing general agents, wholesalers and retail insurance agents.

Mystic Capital Advisors Group, LLC, an emerging firm with years of experience, provides a broad range of financial consulting services to the insurance and financial services industries.
