

AssuredPartners Announces Acquisition of Synergy Professional Associates

Professional Liability Specialists Join Growing Team in New Jersey

LAKE MARY, FL – October 17, 2017 – AssuredPartners, Inc. is delighted to announce the acquisition of Synergy Professional Associates of Fairfield, NJ. Synergy Professional Associates is an established managing general agent and wholesale insurance intermediary devoted to professional liability and program development. The staff of 18 will continue operations under the leadership of Ira Dawer, Michele McCrohan and Maggie Rendeiro. The agency currently reports approximately $4.3 million in revenues.

“Synergy Professional Associates was founded as a boutique gateway for specialized professional liability programs. Our programs allow markets and carriers to reach customers outside of the broad categories and general needs of their typical Insured. The Synergy team has a reputation for finding markets and equipping our brokers with strategic insurance options.” said Ira Dawer. “The Synergy model is proficient and very flexible making us highly effective in providing informative solutions to professional liability risk problems. We feel that this model coupled with AssuredPartners nationwide presence and services will be a boundless partnership that will give Synergy the opportunity to develop other professional liability programs that address specific niches not currently served by standard insurance products.”

“We are pleased to have the clients and employees of Synergy Professional Associates join AssuredPartners.” said AssuredPartners President and COO Tom Riley. “The team is fast, knowledgeable and well known in the professional liability space and aligns well with our existing operations in the New Jersey area.”
